5) Prospects of officials and gazetted officers in the Revenue Dept. as in other Departments of Govt. depend on the number of sanctioned posts in each category of appointments, the seniority and efficiency of the individual officer or official concerned and several other factors associated with each class of appointments and the individual concerned. These prospects are fairly well-known and well-defined. They are common to officials belonging to Depressed Classes as well as to officials belonging to other classes as there seems to be no distinction in prospects based on classes or communities. The specific grievance, if any, which the mover of the Cut Motion is proposing to bring
